It has been one year since Pastor Neal began serving here at Coats Baptist Church as our Senior Pastor! It is evident that God has called him and gifted him with the ability to teach and preach in humility as he faithfully prepares and delivers expository sermons week after week. God has also given him a pastor's heart. Pastor Neal has rejoiced and wept with you and for you. He prays for you and loves you.

And you love him! Continue to pray for him and his family as he serves you and this community. His family is a huge blessing to our church family. Ashley, Emma, Matthew, and John—you are so very loved! Please take a moment today or in the week ahead to reach out to the Thornton family to express your love and appreciation for them.

Thank you CBC family for your participation in various fund raising events this spring to aid in sending over thirty men and women serving on either the Honduras or Guatemala mission trips. Our goal is to share the love and truth of Jesus through hands on help in these communities.

Next Sunday, June 3, starting at 8:00 am near the fellowship hall, you are invited to purchase a cup of freshly juiced fruit and veggie juice for your Sunday breakfast. Three flavors will be provided and ingredients will be listed for each type of fruit or vegetable juice.
